

Transport for Leeds

Transport for Leeds has the potential to deliver a first class transport system, which would mean real and significant improvements for travellers.

This study could result in a major bid for funding from the Department for Transport.

Find out more about Transport for Leeds

Transport for Leeds is a study being carried out by Metro and Leeds City Council, to look at congestion in Leeds and how we can tackle it through investment in better transport systems.

---